Karen's school is very different from other schools. She gets up at seven o'clock and has breakfast at half past seven. She starts school at eight o'clock. But she doesn't travel to school because she lives at the school. From eight o'clock until twelve o'clock she has dancing lessons. After lunch she has the same subjects as other schools. Her favourite subjects are English and Science. In the evening she always does her homework and she sometimes tidies her room or practices the piano. She doesn't watch television on school days. On Thursday evenings she usually goes swimming.

Today is Sunday, and Karen isn't studying. She's in the park with a school friend and they're feeding the ducks. Some students are riding horses. Karen doesn't ride, but she loves horses. Her parents live on a farm and they've got a lot of sheep. At home she's got a pet goat called Billy.

Karen is thinking about her family now. She misses them a lot. But she likes her school, and she works very hard. She does it because she wants to be a famous ballet dancer.

Read about Karen. Answer the questions. Přečti si o Karen a odpověz na otázky.

1. Why doesn't she travel to school?

2. What does she do in the morning?

3. How often does she watch TV on school days?

4. What is she doing at the moment?

5. Where does her family live?

6. Why does she work hard?

He were a tall man dressed in a dark suit. The boots he was wearing and he's trousers were covered with dust. He has come far, Michael john thought, and he has walked all the way. His shoulders were very broad, and he had very lung arms hanging strait down. The were almost below his knees. His head was bare and his short hair was grey and there was a sort of yellow look about his face. He paused in the middel of the road. There was only four houses to be seen. The other few were hidden behind the hills. He saw the faded tobacco sign outside Michael Johns.
